Chapter Three: Board of Directors

Article Twenty-Two: Company Management

(a) The company shall be managed by a board of directors consisting of (9) members, who must be natural persons elected by the ordinary general assembly of shareholders for a period not exceeding four years.

(b) The method of work in the Board of Directors shall be determined as follows. The company shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of nine members, who must be natural persons elected by the ordinary general assembly of shareholders. The Board of Directors shall meet at least four times a year at the invitation of its Chairman, and the Chairman may call the board to a meeting whenever requested to do so by any member of the board to discuss one or more topics.

The place for holding the sessions shall be within the Board of Directors' location, and they may be held using modern technological means.

The correct quorum for the meeting shall be attended by 56% of the members of the Board of Directors, and the correct quorum for making decisions shall be with the approval of 51% of the members. Members of the Board may delegate attendance at the sessions.

The method of communication for members of the Board of Directors is as follows: The invitation is via e-mail or any other means of communication to each member and is sent at least five days before the date set for the meeting whenever any member requests it.

The rules for terminating membership are as follows: Upon the expiration of the term of the board or member - The General Assembly based on the recommendation of the board - If a member is absent from attending three consecutive meetings or five un-consecutive meetings without excuse - The Ordinary General Assembly may dismiss all or some of the members of the board.

A member of the Board of Directors may delegate other members to attend Board meetings in accordance with the following regulations: 1- A member of the Board of Directors may not delegate more than one member to attend the same meeting. 2- The representative may not vote on decisions that the regulation prohibits the representative from voting on. 3- The delegation must be confirmed in writing and regarding a specific meeting. The decision of the Board of Directors shall be effective from the date of its issuance, unless it stipulates that it will take effect at another time or when certain conditions are met. In the event of equal votes, the side with which the Chairman of the meeting voted shall prevail.

Article Twenty-Three: Expiration or termination of board membership

1- Membership in the board shall end at the end of its term or at the expiration of the member's authority in accordance with any regulation or instructions in effect in the Kingdom. The General Assembly may (based on the recommendation of the Board of Directors) terminate the membership of any member who is absent from attending (three) consecutive meetings or (non-consecutive five) meetings during the term of his membership without a legitimate excuse accepted by the Board of Directors. However, the Ordinary General Assembly may dismiss all or some of the members of the Board of Directors. In this case, the Ordinary General Assembly must elect a new Board of Directors or someone to replace the dismissed member (as the case may be) in accordance with the provisions of the regulations.

Article Twenty-Four: Expiration of the term of the Board of Directors, retirement of its members, or vacancy of membership

1- The Board of Directors must, before the end of its term, convene the Ordinary General Assembly to elect a Board of Directors for a new term. If it is not possible to hold the election and the term of the current Board's term has expired, its members will continue to perform their duties until a Board of Directors is elected for a new term, provided that the term of members remaining on the Board until the end of their term does not exceed the period specified by the implementing bylaws of the Companies Law.

2- If the Chairman and members of the Board of Directors resigns, they must invite the Ordinary General Assembly to convene to elect a new Board of Directors. The resignation shall not take effect until the new Board of Directors is elected, provided that the period of continuation of the resigned Board shall not exceed the period specified by the implementing bylaws of the Companies Law.

3- A member of the Board of Directors may retire from membership of the Board pursuant to a written notification addressed to the Chairman of the Board. If a Chairman of the Board resigns, the notification must be directed to the remaining members of the Board and the Secretary of the Board. After the resignation, it shall be effective in both cases - from the date specified in the notification.

4 - If the position of a member of the Board of Directors becomes vacant due to the death or resignation of any of its members, and this vacancy does not result in a violation of the conditions necessary for the validity of the board's meeting due to the number of its members being less than the minimum limit, the board may appoint (temporarily) someone who has experience and competence to fill the vacant position, provided that The commercial registry, as well as the Capital Market Authority if the company is listed on the financial market, must be notified of this within (fifteen) days from the date of appointment, and the appointment must be presented to the ordinary general assembly at its first meeting. The appointed member must complete the term of his predecessor, and the position may remain vacant until the end of the term or the General Assembly is called to appoint a member to the vacant position.

5- If the necessary conditions are not met for the Board of Directors to convene due to the number of its members being less than the minimum stipulated in the Companies Law or these articles of incorporation, the remaining members must invite the Ordinary General Assembly to convene within (sixty) days to elect the necessary number of members.

The Board of Directors is required to obtain the approval of the General Assembly when selling assets whose value exceeds (fifty percent) of the value of its total assets, whether the sale is made through one deal or several deals. In this case, the deal that leads to exceeding (fifty percent) of the value is considered assets that requires the approval of the General Assembly, and this percentage is calculated from the date of the first deal that took place during the previous (twelve) months.

The Board of Directors, within the limits of its jurisdiction, may authorize one or more of its members or a third party to undertake a specific work or tasks.

Article Twenty-Six: Remuneration for board members

1. The Board of Directors' remuneration consists of a percentage of net profits, in-kind benefits, or whatever is determined by the ordinary assembly
2. The Board of Directors' report to the Ordinary General Assembly at its annual meeting must include a comprehensive statement of all that each member of the Board of Directors received or was entitled to receive during the financial year in terms of bonuses, allowance for attending sessions, allowance for expenses, and other benefits.

It should also include a statement of what the board members received in their capacity as employees or administrators or what they received in exchange for technical or administrative work or consultations, and it should also include a statement of the number of the board sessions and the number of sessions attended by each member.

Article Twenty-Seven: Powers of the president, deputy, managing member, and secretary

The Board of Directors shall appoint, in its first meeting, a Chairman of the Board from among its members. It may appoint a Managing Director from among its members, and the Board of Directors shall appoint, in its first meeting, a Vice-Chairman from among its members.

1. The Board of Directors appoints a CEO from among its members or from others.

The Board of Directors appoints a secretary whom he chooses from among its members or from others

The Chairman of the Board of Directors may delegate (by written decision) some of his powers to other members of the Board or to third parties to carry out a specific work or tasks. The Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors shall replace the Chairman of the Board of Directors in his absence in cases where the Board of Directors has a Vice Chairman.

Article Twenty-Eight: Board meetings

1- The Board of Directors meets at least four times a year at the invitation of its Chairman. The Chairman of the board must invite the board to a meeting whenever he is requested to do so in writing by any member of the board to discuss one or more issue.

2 - The Board of Directors determines the place for holding its meetings, and they may be held using modern technological means.

Article Twenty-Nine: Board of Directors meeting and decisions

1 - The Board of Directors meeting will not be valid unless it is attended by at least 56 percent of the members in person or on a delegation. A - (i.e. at least five in person or up on delegation).

2 - A member of the Board of Directors may delegate other members to attend Board meetings in accordance with the following controls: 1 - A member of the Board of Directors may not represent more than one member in attending the same meeting. 2- The representative may not vote on decisions on which the regulation prohibits the delegate from voting. 3- The delegation must be confirmed in writing and regarding a specific meeting. 4- The decisions of the Board of Directors shall be issued by a majority of the votes of the members present in person or at least on their behalf. In the event of a tie, the side with which the Chairman of the meeting voted shall prevail.

3 - The Board of Directors' decision is effective from the date of its issuance, unless it stipulates that it will take effect at another time or when certain conditions are met.

Article Thirty: Board of Directors decisions on urgent matters

1 - The Board of Directors may issue its decisions on urgent matters by presenting them to all members by circulation, unless one of the members requests - in writing - a Board meeting to deliberate on them. These decisions are issued with the approval of the majority of the votes of its members, and these decisions are presented to the board at its first subsequent meeting to be recorded in the minutes of that meeting.

Article Thirty-One: Deliberations of the Board of Directors

1 - The Board of Directors' deliberations and decisions are recorded in minutes prepared by the Secretary and signed by the Chairman of the meeting, the attending Board of Directors members, and the Secretary.

2 - It is recorded for those present in a special register signed by the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Secretary.

3 - It is permissible to use modern technological means to sign, prove actions and decisions, and record the attendance.

Article Thirty-Two: Company Management

The company shall be managed by a board of directors consisting of nine members, who must be natural persons elected by the ordinary general assembly of shareholders for a period not exceeding four years.

Article Thirty-Three: Remuneration for members of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors' remuneration consists of: First: A specific amount and an attendance allowance for the sessions. The remuneration may also be in-kind benefits or a specific percentage of net profits, and it is permissible to combine two or more of these benefits. Second: If the Board of Directors' remuneration is a percentage of the company's profits, this percentage may not exceed ten percent of the net profits after deducting the following: A- Expenses, depreciation, statutory reserves, etc., within the limits of what is stipulated in this articles of incorporation and the companies' law and bylaws. B- Distributing a profit to shareholders of not less than five percent of the company's capital. Third: The Board of Directors' remuneration shall be disbursed in accordance with the following controls: A- Taking into account other relevant laws and regulations issued by other regulatory authorities, the Board of Directors must take into account, in determining and disbursing the remuneration received by each of its members, the relevant provisions contained in the companies' law and governance regulations of companies, in addition to the following standards: 1- The remuneration must be fair and proportionate to the member's specializations, work and responsibilities carried out and borne by the members of the Board of Directors, in addition to the goals specified by the Board of Directors to be achieved during the fiscal year 2- The remuneration must be based on the recommendation of the Remuneration Committee. . 3-The rewards must be commensurate with the company's activity and the skill required to manage it. 4- Taking into account the sector of the company, its size, and the experience of the board members. 5-The remuneration must be reasonably sufficient to attract, motivate and retain members of the Board of Directors with appropriate competence and experience. B- Members of the Board of Directors may not vote on the remuneration item for members of the Board of Directors at the General Assembly meeting. 2- The Board of Directors' report to the Ordinary General Assembly at its annual meeting must include a comprehensive statement of everything that each member of the Board of Directors has obtained or is entitled to receive during the financial year, bonuses, session attendance allowance, expenses allowance, and other benefits. It should also include a statement of what the board members received as employees or administrators or what they received in exchange for technical, administrative or consulting work, and it should also include a statement of the number of board sessions and the number of sessions attended by each member.

Article Thirty-Four: Additional powers of the Board of Directors

1. Develop the necessary plans for the company's business to achieve its objectives. 2. Establishing internal regulations that regulate the company's workflow. 3. Appointing, renewing and removing the CEO and determining his powers, salary and allowances. 4. Managing the company, including appointing employees and workers, renewing their contracts, promoting them, and specifying their wages and allowances, transferring them, investigating them, rewarding them, estimating their bonuses, dismissing them, and terminating their services in accordance with the applicable regulations. 5. Appointing the Chairman of the Board of Directors, his deputy, and the Managing Director of the company from among its members, and appointing a Secretary of the Board of Directors chosen from among its members or from others. 6. Establishing branches, offices or agencies for the company inside or outside the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. 7. Estimating the remuneration of members of the Board of Directors within the limits, controls and provisions stipulated in Article No. (76) of the Companies Law. 8. Determine the dates for payment of the remaining value of the cash shares. 9. Discharge the company's debtors, unless the company's bylaws include or are issued by the ordinary general assembly that restricts the powers of the board of directors in this regard. 10.
